Rt Hon Alan Johnson MP
Home Secretary
Home Office
2 Marsham Street
London
SW1P 4DF

30th September 2009

Dear Alan,

On the 31st of October, football hooligans, far right extremists and Islamophobes from the English Defence League plan on invading Leeds with one simple goal – to whip up fear, religious tension and violence.

I am writing to urge you to ban this march. As one of the eight MPs representing the City of Leeds, and as the MP for one of its most multi-cultural constituencies, please use your powers as Home Secretary to prevent violence and disorder on our streets.

Leeds prides itself on being a city which celebrates diversity and whose citizens from many different backgrounds live in harmony. Please help us protect the peace and multiculturalism which we all value so greatly.

With all my best wishes,
Yours sincerely,

Fabian
