

Who's Who...

The Ambassadors work in Halifax Town Centre during the day. They aim to give support to visitors, residents and businesses in the town. They help market the town, reduce the fear of crime, have first aid skills and report incidents and issues.

The Street Angels are volunteers who work Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide a safe place and safe people for those using the night economy.

St John Ambulance are also volunteers on the streets of Halifax Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide rapid response First Aid assistance.

The Nightlife Marshals are professional security employed by Calderdale Council to provide intervention when incidents occur. They work 11pm - 4am Friday and Saturday.

All projects are working in partnership with the aim of a safer Halifax. There is also wider partnership working with Business, Police, Community Support Officers, Action Halifax, Retail, Pubs and Clubs, Organisations, Church, and Individuals. More information at www.streetangels.org.uk / www.halifaxuk.co.uk

Who's Who...

The Ambassadors work in Halifax Town Centre during the day. They aim to give support to visitors, residents and businesses in the town. They help market the town, reduce the fear of crime, have first aid skills and report incidents and issues.

The Street Angels are volunteers who work Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide a safe place and safe people for those using the night economy.

St John Ambulance are also volunteers on the streets of Halifax Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide rapid response First Aid assistance.

The Nightlife Marshals are professional security employed by Calderdale Council to provide intervention when incidents occur. They work 11pm - 4am Friday and Saturday.

All projects are working in partnership with the aim of a safer Halifax. There is also wider partnership working with Business, Police, Community Support Officers, Action Halifax, Retail, Pubs and Clubs, Organisations, Church, and Individuals. More information at www.streetangels.org.uk / www.halifaxuk.co.uk

Who's Who...

The Ambassadors work in Halifax Town Centre during the day. They aim to give support to visitors, residents and businesses in the town. They help market the town, reduce the fear of crime, have first aid skills and report incidents and issues.

The Street Angels are volunteers who work Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide a safe place and safe people for those using the night economy.

St John Ambulance are also volunteers on the streets of Halifax Friday and Saturday 9pm - 3am. They provide rapid response First Aid assistance.

The Nightlife Marshals are professional security employed by Calderdale Council to provide intervention when incidents occur. They work 11pm - 4am Friday and Saturday.

All projects are working in partnership with the aim of a safer Halifax. There is also wider partnership working with Business, Police, Community Support Officers, Action Halifax, Retail, Pubs and Clubs, Organisations, Church, and Individuals. More information at www.streetangels.org.uk / www.halifaxuk.co.uk