

JOHN C ELVIDGE

Called 1988 (Gray's Inn)

Education King Edward VII School, Sheffield
University of Newcastle Upon Tyne (LLB)
Inns of Court School of Law

Professional Membership

Criminal Bar Association
North Eastern Circuit

Practice

Serious crime

Recent work

- Homicide (murder and manslaughter).
- Non fatal offences against the person including attempted murder, conspiracy to do grievous bodily harm, child cruelty and kidnapping.
- Contested applications for witnesses to give evidence anonymously.
- Applications for trial by protected jury and by judge alone.
- Fraud including commercial fraud and fraudulent trading, tax evasion, excise offences and money laundering.
- Armed robbery.
- Sexual offences including rape (male and female complainants), offences against children, familial offences, historic offences and cases requiring intermediaries.
- Supply, including wholesale supply, and production of prohibited drugs and associated conspiracies including allegations arising from covert operations.
- Commercial arson and arson with intent to endanger life.
- Causing death by dangerous driving.
- Misconduct in public office and serious offences alleged against police officers.
- Unlawful use of computers.
- Extradition and offences committed abroad.
- Allegations against children, senior citizens and people who were not fit to plead.