

Miss Emma Gough

Date of Call: November 2004

Inn of Court: Inner Temple

Qualifications: LLB Hons – First Class. Blackstone's Prize for best First Class degree in the year

Practice: General Common Law, Crime, Employment and Family.

Areas of special interest: Crime, Discrimination Law.

I have been led in a murder case and have conducted numerous cases to trial up to the level of Section 18 wounding. Employment cases include disability and sex discrimination and have conducted a case for the Equal Opportunities Commission.

I have also acted in High Court family cases and am currently acting for a Claimant in a Personal Injury claim with a value in excess of £250,000.

Additional Information:

Prior to joining York Chambers I worked for the General Medical Council as part of the Case Review Team set up in the wake of the Shipman Enquiry.