

James Willoughby

James Willoughby studied at Edinburgh University (MA), La Terza Università in Rome and City University (GDL) in London.

After graduating he pursued a career in investment banks in London working for UBS Warburg, Goldman Sachs and the Bank of New York before turning towards the legal profession. He was called to the Bar in 2005 (Middle Temple).

James' practice encompasses advocacy, drafting and advisory work across a broad range of areas of practice, though predominantly within the following fields:

Family:

Divorce & matrimonial finance, Children Act 1989 & Family Law Act 1996 matters.

Employment:

Unfair & constructive dismissal, redundancy, equal pay and discrimination.

Criminal:

General criminal law but with an interest in Environmental Protection Act 1990 & Football Spectators Act 1989 cases. He is a Attorney General's List C prosecutor.

Personal Injury:

All areas except clinical negligence. He has an interest in Animal Act cases and would like to think he knows 'one end of a horse from another'!

Civil:

Cohabitation, constructive trusts, Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 matters, costs & general civil work
