LIVE MUSIC NOW

Founded in 1977 by violinist Yehudi Menuhin, Live Music Now is the largest music outreach organisation in the UK. It aims to:

- Support talented musicians at the start of their careers (most are under 30 years old) with paid performance opportunities and support in professional development
- Provide live performances and workshops in venues such as hospitals, hospices, schools, care homes and prisons.

LMN works with over 350 professional musicians, delivering over 3000 performances and workshops across the UK each year.

OPEN DAY

To find out more, come along to the open day on:

3pm, 4th March 2010
The Black Box,
18-22 Hill Street, Belfast

The open day is a session for musicians to find out more about the LMN scheme, how it provides work to musicians and how to apply.

There will be a performance by former LMN musician Guillermo Rozenthuler and support from LMN staff who will be able to answer your questions.
