

Season's greetings Eisha, nine, wins MP's card competition

WHO needs specialist Christmas card designers when you have talented children to turn to? When Leeds North East MP Fabian Hamilton needed a design for his official festive card he enlisted the help of pupils in his constituency. Ten schools were invited to take part in a design a card competition. It attracted an enthusiastic response leaving Fabian and his staff to sift through a host of seasonal sketches. And from all the entrants a colourful card featuring a Christmas tree and presents produced by nine-year-old Eisha Jabar was chosen as the winner. It will now be used on 500 cards Fabian will send out to contacts Eisha and some of the other youngsters who took part in the competition visited the Civic Hall where Fabian thanked them for their efforts Pictured are from the left, Freddie Phillips, five, Dharam Singh, seven, Ben Sarussi, 10, Eisha Jabar, nine, Mandy Crawford, eight, and Daisy Pearson, 16. Inset, Eisha's winning design.